READING: BEN CHARLES: a young businessman with a heart

Ben Charles is an American teenager and like many other sixteen-year-olds, he loves doing sports. He's probably playing basketball right now. He's very interested in clothes and fashion. He enjoys collecting sports shoes or „sneakers” as he calls them. His collection includes shoes for playing tennis and basketball, and trainers for meeting friends.

There's a difference between Ben and his friends. He's got a small business which makes and sells sports shoes. Ben doesn't sell his shoes because he would like to be rich; he sells them to help others. All Ben's trainers look the same and they all cost 50$. When you buy Ben's trainers, he gives a free pair to someone who hasn't got the money to buy them.

It all started two years ago when Ben found a photo of a young child without shoes. At that moment Ben understood that he's very lucky. There are a lot of young people around the world who can't buy trainers. Unlike Ben, they have to play sports like basketball without shoes.
